Figure (a) shows the USTC sodium density (atom cm$^{-3}$) as a function of altitude (km) and correlation coefficient. Figure (b) illustrates the FW5 sodium density (atom cm$^{-3}$) with similar variables. The data suggests a correlation between sodium density and altitude, with the density decreasing as altitude increases.