We thank all the referees for their thorough reviews. In the attached zip file, please find our response to each referee. For better comparison, we also added a version of the manuscript with marked changes. (Note, that the layout of the figure part could not be optimized due to the marking of our changes by Word. However, it should enable the referees to better assess the quality of the figures in a format different from the ACPD-pdf file.)

Please also note the supplement to this comment:
