This is an introduction paper to the special issues of the EUCAARI project that is open in ACP. I recommend that the authors revise the paper in one aspect before its acceptance for publication in ACP.

The project has continued for more than 24 months, i.e. it has passed half of its length. I therefore suggest that the authors update the paper for 24 months with regard of the main results (section 59 and statistics. Currently, different time frames are used
