Now that the reviewer #1 has demonstrated hostile attitude toward this paper, the author may tell his real feeling about this reviewer’s “comments”. The reviewer’s language is rude and offensive (“Come on!”, “terrible explanations”, “the author lack the basic knowledge!”); his questions are nonsense and ridiculous (see the “comments” in RC3), which the author had answered in patience. The author thinks that this reviewer is not commenting, he is bothering. This ill intention will be rejected altogether. The author refuse to respond to any of the questions from reviewer #1, except the ones responded in AC3. This is the final and last response .
