

Dear Dr. Stiller

Thank you very much for your revision.

Regarding your question we would like to say that we prefer to not use any interpolation (neither linear nor logarithmic) to reflect the limited vertical information that MLS provides. However, you are right that the plotting procedure needs to be stated more clearly. We updated the Figure S1 respectively and added a description on the plotted pressure levels in the caption.

Best Regards

Adriana Bossolasco