

We thank the editor for her positive comments on our manuscript.

As we had uploaded our revised manuscript previously and the editor did not have any additional comments, we did not make any significant changes.

The only change was made in Table 3, its caption and in line 508:

Following up on technical correction suggested by the editorial office, the shading in the cells in Table 3 was removed. These values are now by asterisks (*). Accordingly, we changed the text in line 508 and in the caption of Table 3.
